Who doesn't think "Alexander Keith's" when they think of Halifax, Nova Scotia? Join your CCSE colleagues at 6:30 pm for a tour of Alexander Keith's Brewery, it'll feel like you're stepping back in time, when Alexander himself was brewing his fine ale, back when Halifax was bustling with soldiers and sailors, all manner of townfolk, even a privateer or two. Tour guides, dressed in period costume, will escort us into Alexander's dining room where we'll witness the great brewmaster come to life in sound and story. We'll step into the brewhouse, rich with copper and wood, and see, smell, and hear beer being brewed just the way he did over a century ago. Our visit wouldn't be complete without a sample of Keith's India Pale Ale. So we'll head to the restored Stag Head tavern where you can listen to toe-tapping Nova Scotia music, play games, be sworn into a special society, and enjoy a complimentary glass of Keith's ale brewed right on the premises. You must respond to Derek H. Berg via 9db1@qlink.queensu.ca by May 19 if you wish to take part in this event and to get directions to the brewery (the tour is limited to 30 people). Once at the conference, you can find him at one of the sessions he is chairing, but the spaces may be full by then! If you can't participate in the tour, you can still join the group for an evening on the town (meet at the Brewery at 7:30 pm).
